

First Global Conference on Air Pollution and Health

October 30 – November 1, 2018

Annotated Agenda

Instructions: Under any topic areas of interest to your agency, please briefly note any key messages, areas of support, or areas to watch out for/concerns. See conference program for additional details about each session.

Day 1 (Tuesday 30 October)

1. The Scientific Evidence on Air Pollution and Health (Plenary I)

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

2. Air Quality and Health Effects: WHO resources and support (Plenary II)

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

Air Quality, Health Effects, and Link Between Air Pollution and Climate Change (Parallel Sessions I)

Ambient air quality monitoring, modelling and forecasting—the next stage(Parallel Session 1.1)

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

What we know about health effects of air pollution (Parallel Session 1.2)

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

Climate change and air pollution (Parallel Session 1.3)

3. Regional Challenges and Priorities (Plenary Session III)

Day 2 (Wednesday 31 October)

4. Engaging the Health Sector as Leader of Change (Plenary Session IV)

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

5. Communication, Advocacy, Partnerships (Plenary Session V)

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

Engaging health and other sectors (Parallel Sessions II)

Clean household energy access: igniting the transition for protecting public health livelihoods and environment (Parallel Session II.1)

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

Reducing Air Pollution – improving children’s health (Parallel Session II.2)

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

Global Actions for Equipping National Health Workforces to Deal with Air Pollution (Parallel Session II.3)

6. Plenary session VI – Act on air pollution to achieve health and climate goals (SDGs, Paris Agreement) – solutions across sectors

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

Parallel Sessions III – Action with a health focus

Tackling Air Pollution in Cities – Improving Health and Climate (Parallel Session III.1)

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

Reducing health sector emissions – modern energy access for Universal Health Coverage (Parallel Session III.2)

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

How reducing air pollution can prevent the leading NCDs (Parallel Session III.3)

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

Day 3 (Thursday 1 November)

7. Opening of High Level Day

8. From Evidence to Action (Plenary Session VII)

- See Jane's remarks

9. Stock-Taking from the Conference with Presentations of Key Messages from Day 1 and Day 2 (Plenary Session VII)

10. Cleaning the World's Air – Economic incentives, governance and health sector leadership (Plenary Session VIII)

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

9. Cleaning the World's Air – Time to act and commit!! (Plenary Session IX)

10. Conclusions and Next Steps – (Plenary Session X)